TIMELINE

#SAYHERNAME

The anti-violence movement has historically pitted the safety of different communities against each other. Women and LGBTQIA+ folks who are black, Latinx, queer, trans, Muslim, immigrants, sex workers, homeless, or all of the above cannot separate any of our layers of marginalization. If solutions to patriarchal violence cause violence against other marginalized communities, they're not solutions.

TRANSFORMHARM.ORG

A RESOURCE HUB ABOUT ENDING VIOLENCE

TransformHarm.org is a resource hub about ending violence. We are not an organization. This site offers an introduction to transformative justice. Created by Mariame Kaba and designed by Lu Design Studio, the site includes selected articles, audio-visual resources, curricula and more.

You can use what is here, and submit recommendations to be added to the focus areas listed here. We hope you will use these materials to foster your own education and also share them with your communities to build something new. Only together can we transform our relationships to each other and society. We hope that this site helps in this effort.
