VALORUS[®]

ABOUT VALOR & NSAC

ValorUS® (VALOR) is a California-based, national organization and California's sexual assault coalition committed to advancing equity and ending sexual violence. Since our founding in 1980, we have continued to build dynamic relationships across a diverse range of communities, institutions and systems, and mobilize our network of survivors and advocates to influence change. Through leadership, prevention, and advocacy, we are fearlessly pursuing a world free from violence where the dignity of every person is valued and respected.

The National Sexual Assault Conference® (NSAC) brings together over 2,000 advocates and activists invested in ending sexual violence. This annual conference provides opportunities to share information and resources, advance learning, develop new skills, and increase our capacity to assert the dignity of all people. The 2023 conference theme, EQUITY IN ACTION, will create the opportunity to build strong partnerships and strategies that strengthen our work to end sexual violence. With this shared theme, we will work towards a world free from sexual violence and set the national agenda for our work for the coming year.

GAIL BURNS-SMITH AWARD

The National Sexual Violence Resource Center (NSVRC) and the Association for the Treatment and Prevention of Sexual Abuse (ATSA) are once again proud partners in giving out this year's Gail Burns-Smith Award.

Named after Gail Burns-Smith, a fierce activist who helped create the first victim advocate program for sex offender treatment, this award recognizes and celebrates the tremendous and innovative actions of those whose work furthers partnerships between advocates working on behalf of victims/survivors and those working in the area of sex offender management and treatment. Each year, we receive nominations from across the nation that inspire our belief in this movement's progress.

Change does not happen overnight. Change occurs due to the continuous efforts of advocates who carry the vision of what could be possible. To all of our nominees this year and every year, we thank you for the undeniable differences you've made to your colleagues, your community members, and this movement at large.

THE RECALL: REFRAMED

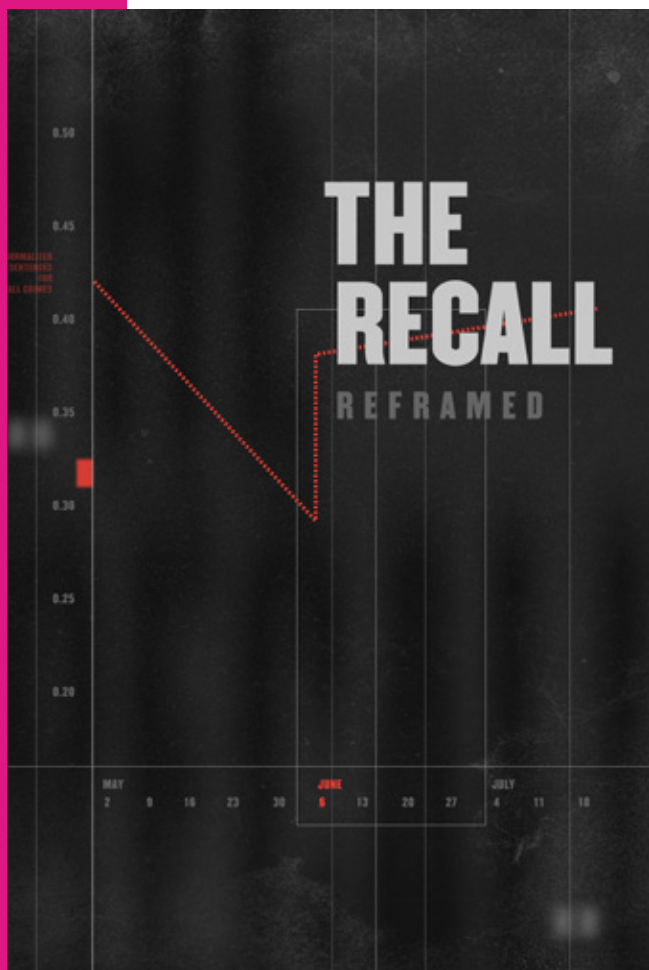

SCREENING AND PANEL DISCUSSION

TUESDAY, AUGUST 22ND
– 5:30-6:30PM

THE RECALL: REFRAMED examines the 2018 recall of California Judge Aaron Persky, who lost his judgeship after handing down a sentence deemed too lenient by many in the infamous sexual assault case involving Stanford swimmer Brock Turner. The recall came at the height of the #MeToo movement, and some hailed it as a victory against rape culture, white privilege, and a system stacked against survivors of sexual violence. But there's more to the story. The film offers competing perspectives and asks the difficult question: Who actually bears the burden when we demand harsher punishment for a privileged white defendant?

PANEL DISCUSSION FEATURING:

- Rebecca Richman Cohen,
*Director of THE RECALL:
REFRAMED*
- sujatha baliga,
Restorative Justice Practitioner
- Nikita Mitchell, *Survivor and
Chief Strategy Officer, me too,
International*
- Sandra Henriquez, Moderator

NSAC would not be possible without the support of Native American – Decolonizing Survivor Advocacy track sponsors: Minnesota Indian Women’s Sexual Assault Coalition, Strong Hearted Native Women’s Coalition, Inc., and Southwest Indigenous Women’s Coalition.

NATIVE AMERICAN & INDIGENOUS RESOURCES

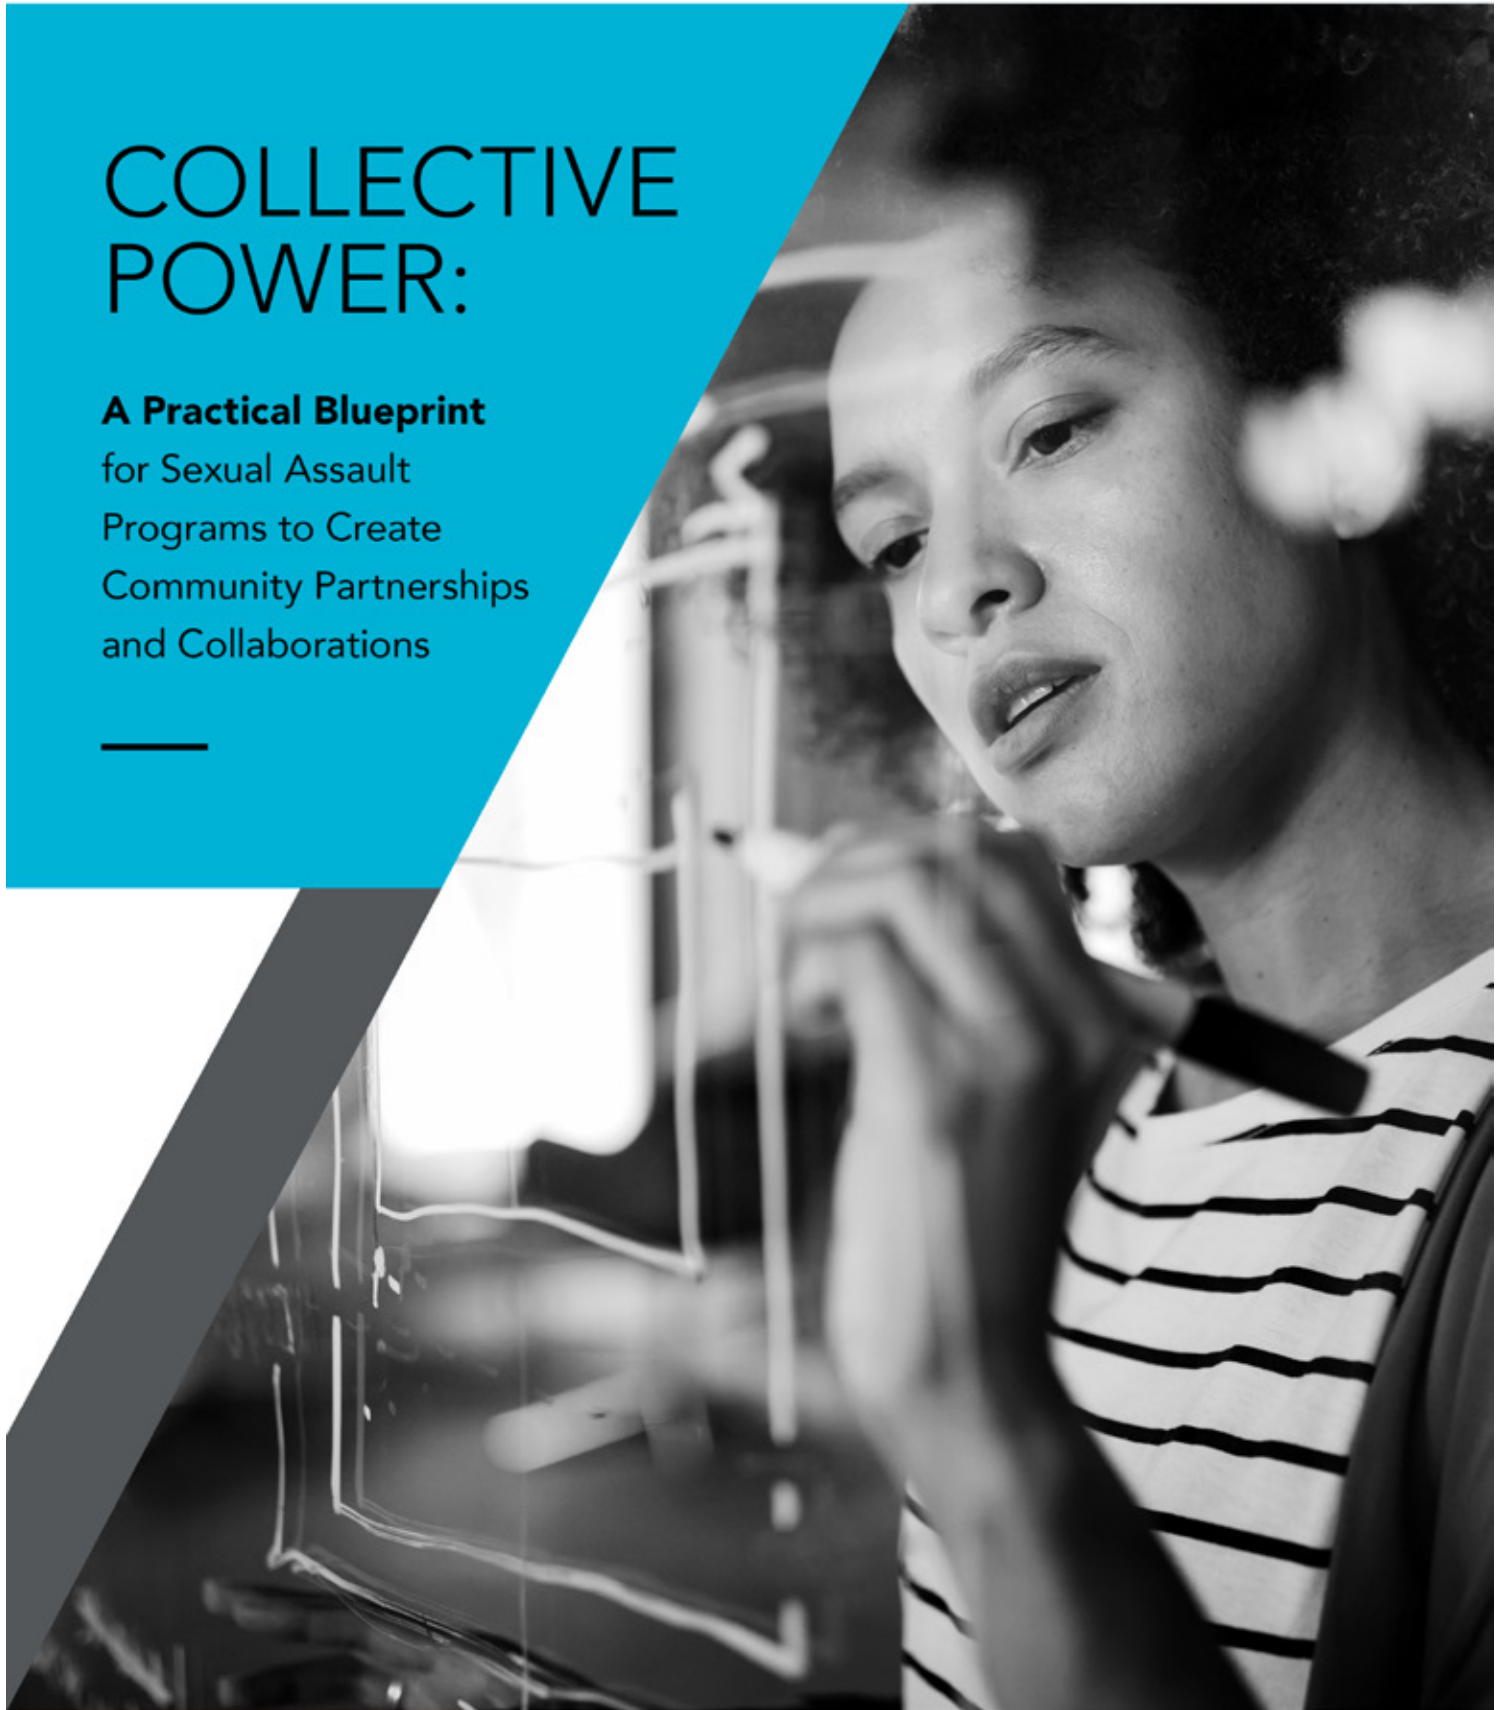

The 2023 National Sexual Assault Conference® (NSAC) theme is Equity in Action. This theme calls us to explore ways in which we can continue to advance our important work, break through barriers and better align ourselves with community. It requires us to reflect, to reckon with our past, to enact change. We embrace our Native and Indigenous siblings and honor the Ohlone, Ramaytush, and Muwekma land we are on. We invite each NSAC participant to join VALOR in deepening our support of Indigenous survivors, advocates and communities. Land acknowledgments show good intention and yet we recognize that they are not enough, we must go further. Our support, advocacy, resources, and expansion of our cultural awareness are important steps. NSAC 2023 challenges each of us to transform our commitments to Native and Indigenous leaders and communities through connection, by building intentional partnerships and avenues for support of Indigenous and Native leaders.

Let's ask the community what support we can provide individually and organizationally. Let's honor what they say. Together we can support the ongoing legacy and groundbreaking work of Native American community leaders. TOGETHER WE CAN EMBODY EQUITY IN ACTION!
